After a short time in business, he went into the insurance business, in which he was very successful. Also served as a notary public and as a director of the Kentucky School. He Married Belle Beard.

Dear Subscribers and Friends,

This is to inform you all that we are thinking of changing the Newsletter mailing, since we didn't get a Senior Citizens Program this year and with the high cost of copying the newsletters, supplies and postage. We are working on bulk mail and still need to discuss more with the Post Office. We will consider bulk mail if it is cheaper.

I am sorry we're out of Baby Quiz this time, but if any of you are still interested in having Baby Quiz again, please send us your baby and adult pictures. We'll take good care of them and send them back to you after scanning them. Please also send any news (including sports news), recipes, pictures, etc to share with all of us.

Take care of yourselves and enjoy your summer.

Health Tips

NPH: MEMORY LOSS MAY NOT BE ALZHEIMER'S

Neuroscience Health Highlights – Memorial Hermann Southwest Hospital
www.memorialhermann.org

Normal pressure hydrocephalus (NPH) is a neurological condition that normally affects adults older than 55. Hydrocephalus is an abnormal, excessive accumulation of cerebrospinal fluid (CSF). CSF cushions the brain and spinal cord tissue from injuries. It also delivers nutrients to the central nervous system and removes waste products from the brain and spinal cord. Every day, a certain amount of CSF is produced and absorbed in the brain. When an imbalance occurs, an excess of CSF builds up, creating increased pressure in the head.

RECOGNIZING NPH

Although not all symptoms are always present at the same time, NPH patients usually exhibit:

- Difficulty walking
- Dementia or forgetfulness
- Urinary incontinence or bladder control problems

In many ways, the symptoms of NPH are similar to those of Alzheimer's disease or Parkinson's disease. In fact, one-quarter of a million Americans who suffer from some of the same symptoms as Alzheimer's or Parkinson's may actually suffer from NPH. The feeling of feet glued to the floor or difficulty walking is the first symptom to appear with NPH. While memory loss and confusion tend to be early symptoms in Alzheimer's, they appear later with NPH.

DIAGNOSING AND TREATING NPH

Once NPH is identified, chances are it can be treated. In addition to a careful clinical assessment, some of the most common diagnostic tools include computed tomography (CT) and magnetic resonance imaging (MRI).

The chances for a successful treatment increase the earlier NPH are diagnosed.

However, since most NPH sufferers are older than 55, many of them assume that the symptoms are just part of the aging process. So symptoms that seem to progress with time can be present for months or even years before diagnosis. Typically, the longer the symptoms have been present, the less likely it is that treatment will be successful.

EXERCISE AND YOUR BRAIN

Experts think that exercise may release chemicals in the brain, such as serotonin, that affect mood. It also may help the brain release natural painkillers called endorphins. Some researchers think these endorphins might induce a painless euphoria, resulting in the "runner's high" that intense exercisers sometimes get.
Your comprehension also may improve if you exercise. In one study of older adults, walkers had improved cognitive skills, compared with people who stretched but didn't walk. For example, walkers switched between tasks faster after exercising than those who only stretched.

Baking Soda Tips

2 of 10 brilliant uses for baking soda

Stop annoying bug bite itch fast

In a small bowl, mix 1 Tbs. Baking soda with enough water to form a thick paste. Apply a thin layer over the itchy area and let dry before rinsing off. The baking soda draws out the neutralizes the inflammatory agents injected by mosquitoes and other pests to provide instant relief.

Erase a secret source of bathroom smells

Even though you pride yourself on keeping your bathroom spotless, a buildup of hydrogen sulfide deep in your toilet tank can still give off unpleasant (and embarrassing!) odors. Fortunately, you can combat the smelly culprit with minimal effort. Simply flush 1 cup baking soda down the plumbing once a week. The sodium bicarbonate helps maintain proper pH and alkalinity to keep sulfide odors in check, so the room will smell as clean as it looks.

A RIDDLE THAT'LL KILL YOUR BRAIN! That is going to make you so MAD!

One is angry and the other is hungry. EveryONE knows the third ONE means and what it stands for.

OUR GRANDDAUGHTER, BLAIR THOMPSON

Blair Thompson, our granddaughter graduated from college in May with a nursing degree. She is a registered nurse in the ICU at Houston Northwest Medical Center. The whole family joined together for a graduation ceremony. John, Blair's husband was even able to be here from Iraq for two weeks around graduation. We are so proud of her. J C & Beatrice Smith

THE NEWS: By Nellie Bishop

On Saturday, June 10th my daughter, Shirley, took me with her to her granddaughter Michelle's house in New Braunfels, TX to honor her husband who came home from Iraq. We had good barbecue meats and food. We also visited my son Ray for a few hours before coming back home. I didn't get a chance to visit my sister-in-law and her husband for their Golden Anniversary on June 17th in Rockne, TX, because my daughters, Shirley and Doris got sick.

On June 24th Doris took Shirley and me to Pearland, TX to visit my sister Lucille Baker, and my nephew and his wife, Carrol Franks. We had shrimp scampi for dinner, and stayed there a while before going home. We enjoyed visiting with them.

I really enjoyed two trips in a month.

TRIP TO ITALY – Patsy Walker

On May 10th I flew to Naples, Italy on a British Airways plane. The plane landed at Gatwick Airport in London, England on May 11th, and then changed planes to Naples, Italy. Robert Walker's son, Tim and his wife, Carla met me at the airport.

The next day we went to Sorenetto, a very beautiful village (old Italian style) to shop all day. On Saturday Carla and I met their women friends from the Navy Base and rode on a tour bus to downtown Naples, and then rode on a nice big ferry to Ischia Island. It took an hour to get to the island. Wow! Beautiful beach, artificial waterfall; also pool and spa to cool people off all day. We got back home at night.

Tim's family, Tracy and boys and I went to Rome to tour the Coliseum, Vatican and famous fountain called Fontana Di Trevia, in which you throw coins behind your back to make a wish. Vatican is a very beautiful town, but I didn't see the Pope. After the tour we arrived home and got some rest.

We all went to Pompeii and Vesuvio - the volcano that destroyed Pompeii. We walked up to the volcano and it was steep walking up there.

Tim's retirement ceremony was very nice and we had fun with his Navy friends at the picnic all afternoon until dark.

I left Naples on May 25th and got home on the 26th. I will never forget the trip.

MY BIG BIRTHDAY BLAST – Early McVey

July 4th is my birthday, but my daughter, Patsy Walker gave a surprise birthday party for me on Saturday, the 1st at Magnolia Hall. I arrived at the hall blindfolded, standing at the front door with Bob and Vera Akers who guided me there after a short time driving around. I was let in the door and the blindfold removed to find a large crowd saying "Happy Birthday." There were lots of camera flashes. WOW, What a great big crowd! I would say about 150 people. I was moved to tears. It was so wonderful to see such a big crowd. The hall is with air conditioner and a nice place.

There was a big birthday cake with the colors of July 4th decorations. There was also a TV with a DVD to show a film of my life. There was a long buffet table with delicious food; and another table for cards.

Everybody seemed to really enjoy themselves at the party. I was stunned and tried to give some words to appreciate all those who came to the party, and those who couldn't make it for one reason or the other. I had a wonderful time and hope everyone there did, too. I will never forget the best birthday party in my life. Many thanks again to all.

OUR PARENTS: By Shirley R. (Barry) Dye

Last May 6th my husband, Doyle's mother passed away and was buried at Claremore, OK. She was 88 years old. She is survived by her sons Doyle and Gary, cousins and an aunt who is 91 years old. She was preceded by her husband who died of cancer a long time ago.

My mother, Irene Barry, is still alive at the Nursery home in Jacksboro, TX and she is doing well. She'll be 92 years old in September.

NEWS: By Shirley R. (Barry) Dye

We went to Ft. Worth and stayed with Larry & Patsy Smith for two weeks from June 4th to 18th. We enjoyed staying with them. Also we enjoyed spending time at TSD's 150th Anniversary weekend. I hadn't seen my old friends in a long time and I surely was glad to see them at the TSD campus.

We went to South Padre Island to spend two days to shop and enjoy tours. Then we stopped in Raymondville, TX to meet Joel & Angel Smith. We chatted for a short time, then stopped in Port Arnsas, TX to use my sister & her husband's condo for two days (they live in Dallas). We just looked around the town for pleasure, shopping and eating out at a nice restaurant. Larry and Doyle went out for a walk by the ocean, swam in a swimming pool and spa. Patsy and I stayed at the condo to watch the ocean from the 9th floor condo. We returned to Ft. Worth. We were worn out, but glad we made it safely.

We took another trip to Oklahoma City and paid a short visit to Mrs. Sammy (Carpenter) Butcher. I told her about TSD's 150th and Class of 1964 reunion. Patsy took pictures of the 50th Anniversary classes and we gave them some pictures. And finally we went home to Tulsa. Whew!

Sammy wants to say hello to TSD Deafies.

SPOTTED AT THE NAD CONFERENCE

An out of state visitor spotted something interesting at the NAD Conference in Palm Springs, CA.

It was a California auto license plate that showed a "I Love You" symbol on it. A deaf-blind person, when alerted to it, placed his hand on the tag and said "I can feel the ILY hand shape".

SENIOR HUMOR

A distraught senior citizen phoned her doctor's office.

"Is it true," she wanted to know, "that the medication you prescribed has to be taken for the rest of my life?"

"Yes, I'm afraid so," the doctor told her.

There was a moment of silence before the senior lady replied, "I'm wondering, then, just how serious is my condition because this prescription is marked 'NO REFILLS'."

(Cute) A MORAL STORY... Received email from a friend

One morning a husband returns after several hours of fishing and decides to take a nap. Although not familiar with the lake, his wife decides to take the boat out. She motors out a short distance, and reads her book.

Along comes a Game Warden in his boat. He pulls up alongside the woman and says, "Good morning, Ma'am. What are you doing?" "Reading a book," she replies, (thinking, Isn't that obvious?)

"You're in a Restricted Fishing Area," he informs her. "I'm sorry, officer, but I'm not fishing; I'm reading."

"Yes, but you have all the equipment. For all I know you could start at any moment. I'll have to take you in and write you up." "If you do that, I'll have to charge you with sexual assault," says the woman.

"But I haven't even touched you," says the game warden. "That's true, but you have all the equipment. For all I know you could start at any moment."

"Have a nice day ma'am," and he left.

MORAL: Never argue with a woman who reads. It's likely she can also think.

Houston Deaf Seniors Field Trip

On Friday, July 14th Houston Deaf Senior Citizens (29 people) took a field trip to Rusk, TX. They arrived at Texas State Park Railroad (Victorian-style) station at 10 AM and boarded one of several historic (open-air) steam trains; rode about one and half hours one way from Rusk to Palestine, TX. The train rolled along the tracks of the Texas State Railroad, passing through the beautiful pineywoods and hardwood creek bottoms of East Texas. They also saw a few nice, odd houses and stores along the way. They enjoyed the relaxing ride and ate their lunch in the train. Before arriving at the Palestine railroad station a conductor (Ben) punched their tickets. After they arrived at the Palestine railroad station, they took some pictures. Some of the pictures are shown below.

On the way back they stopped by the Woodlands Mall Food Court for meals and chatted a bit before heading back to Houston. They enjoyed their day and glad to get home safely.

LAUGHTER, THE BEST MEDICINE

Alabama state troopers were closing in on a speeding car when it crossed into Georgia. Suddenly the officer behind the wheel slowed to a stop.

"What are you doing?" his partner asked. "We almost had him!"

"He just crossed over into the Eastern Standard Time zone," he said. "Now he's a full hour ahead of us."

Reader's Digest – July 2006

VISITING THE psych ward, a man asked how doctors decide to institutionalize a patient.

"Well," the director said, "we fill a bathtub, then offer a teaspoon, a teacup and a bucket to the patient, and ask him to empty the tub."

"I get it," the visitor said. "A normal person would use the bucket because it's the biggest."

"No," the director said. "A normal person would pull the plug."
