Thirty-five senior citizens got together on August 11th. It was great to see most of us back since our last meeting, which was in May. We have two newcomers, Bill and Ana Hassan. They are from California.

As most of us know, the Woodhaven Church moved to a new location called The Grove, and we had our luncheon there.

Pasty Walker led the meeting. Jim Dermon announced the coming field trips. Nancy Morris led the HUGHO games.

While Nancy led the game, Jim went to a BBQ restaurant to pick up tasty beef brisket. What a feast we had!

Because of COVID-19, we had to wear masks and follow the CDC guidelines, and the servers wore gloves.

After lunch, Rose Ingram gave some of us a tour of the new church. The rest just loved chatting and catching up on the news.

Hopefully, we will start having meetings again at MMSC soon.

OKLAHOMA TRIP

By Nancy Morris

On July 26, my daughter and I went to Oklahoma City to celebrate my 37th birthday (Oooppssss, I meant the 73rd birthday)!!! Our hotel was just 3 or 4 blocks from Toby Keith's Restaurant. We had fun walking there in Bricktown and shopping. Then, we headed to the restaurant for a delicious meal! Wow! It was delicious!! Then, we walked to Marble Slab and ordered waffle bowls with our favorite ice cream. After that, we went outside to sit on a bench there as the weather was perfect.

The next day, we headed to the National Memorial Museum, where they have many video shows that were closed captioned, and they had a lot of Internets set up for everyone to check on things that happened on April 19, 1995. It was fantastic and exciting.

Next, we headed to Pawhuska, OK, to go to Mercantile, owned by the pioneer woman, Ree Drummond, who has her cooking show on TV. The food there was delicious.

Debra ordered the appetizer of French fries with garlic and parmesan cheese. When the waiter brought it to our table, we were very wide-eyed!!! It was huge and enough to feed 6 or 8 people to share. We were shocked! The waiter was laughing and said that anytime you order appetizers in the country, they are big!! Haha, haha. We were laughing.

The next day, we went walking around Bricktown on a different route. First, we stopped at the Candy Factory and Pinkitzel (cupcakes and candy). Then, we walked back to the hotel to pick up my SUV to drive back to Texas. What a great trip!!!

OUR BOSTON TRIP

By Jeanne Hilferty

Larry and I went to Boston last month. We stayed at the hotel downtown to walk around to see the old church. Samuel Adams, John Hancock and several well-known people were buried there. There is an extensive shopping center called Quincy Market which you can see on the map where we walked and went sightseeing.

We took the duck tour on land and water. We ate at The Hard Rock Café. It has been a long time since we had eaten in a restaurant. We were supposed to see the Boston Tea Party ship, but it was closed. DANG! The weather was so perfect and excellent. We had a great time, and we would like to go back again.

Visiting My Old Friends for the Weekend

By Patsy Walker

I visited Mary Jo Stevens in Brenham and spent Saturday and Sunday with her. Then we went to see Jerrie Cervenka and Peggy Owen in Temple.

I enjoyed visiting with my old friends for the whole weekend.

Social Meeting

PIP

Officer Sobota will present to the HDSCLF on the topic of "Situational Awareness." As so many of us are busy in our everyday lives, we sometimes forget that we let our guard down and criminals can take advantage of us.

He is really looking forward to seeing all of us again.

Some Good Advice For Those Over 65 Years Old (Part 3)

(edited by Larryonne)

6. It doesn't matter how old you are; always keep love alive and fun. Love your partner, love life, love your family, love your neighbor and remember this "A man/woman is not old as long as he/she has intelligence and affection (love).

7. Be proud of yourself and show others that you are proud of yourself by doing the following things.

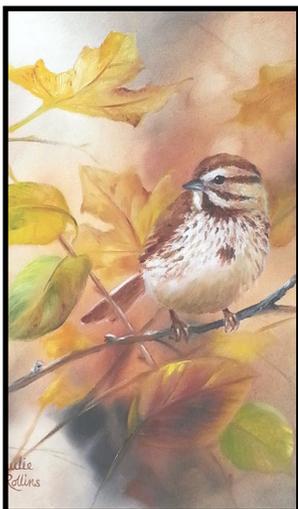

- A. Keep yourself clean
- B. Brush your teeth regularly.
- C. Keep your hair trimmed and cleaned.
- D. Go to the dermatologist and dentists to keep yourself looking good and feel proud.
- E. Have your body smelling nice that people enjoy being with you.

All these will help you feel prouder of ourself and not be ashamed of yourself.

8. Keep your clothes up to date and wear clothes that are right for your age. Do not try so hard to dress like the younger people. Instead, make sure the clothes look great on you and those others see you looking your best.

Send some news, your trip, an announcement (newborn baby, birthday, anniversary, craft, obituary), and color photos to me before or on 15th day of each month. Thanks!
